FATHER SCHUMAKER COUNCIL NO. 6772 ST. ALPHONSUS PARISH
BROOKLYN CENTER, MN 55429 February 2022

Chaplain's Message: Fr. Marcel E. Okwara, CSsR

Brothers,

In John's Gospel, our Lord Jesus says, "I no longer call you slaves because a slave does not know what his master is doing. I have called you friends, because I have told you everything I have heard from my Father" (John 15:15). The great news contained in the aforementioned text is that none of us is a slave. We are not slaves not even to our Lord and Master Jesus Christ; rather, we are his friends. Slaves don't have to love their masters. In fact, slaves hardly love their masters. Slaves do not sit, eat and dine at the same table with their masters. The master does not die for his slaves. If anything, he would sacrifice the lives of his slaves just to keep his. As for Jesus, he calls us friends and even died for us. As I said already, love doesn't have to exist between a master and his slaves; but between friends, there is love and intimacy; there is a desire to please each other; there is a yearning to make sacrifices for each other. What prevails between a slave and his master is a mere blind obedience on the part of the slave, and this obedience is generated more by fear and less by love. Jesus calls us friends because he wants us to love and not to fear him. He wants our obedience of his commandments to be generated by love and fidelity and not by fear. And let's not forget that he was the first to love us: "It was not you who chose me, but I chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain" (John 15:16). His love for us is divine and unconditional, for he said, "As the Father loves me, so I also love you" (John 15:9).

Now, since the Owner of our lives did not call us slaves, no one should be called a slave or be treated as such. We are all God's children and friends of Jesus. In Galatians 3:28, St. Paul says, "There is neither Jew nor Greek, slave nor free, for we are all one in Christ Jesus." Since Jesus has elevated each one of us, no person's humanity should be diminished. No one should be looked at as inferior or as a second-class human being. No person should be belittled. Why? Because Jesus the Savior has lifted and exalted every human person. Our society has some people who oftentimes say, write and do things that racially disrespect and dishonor certain races, and when they are confronted by it, they dismiss their critics with comments like: "I am not a racist." Each of us should be careful not to dishonor those whom God has honored, not to disparage or undervalue those whom God values and cherishes, not to treat as a slave those whom God has called friends, not to dehumanize a person whose dignity Jesus has dignified and glorified. If Jesus did not call us slaves or treat us as slaves, why do we look at others or treat them as slaves? Mark this, anyone who dishonors another whom God has created in his image and likeness dishonors God too. And there are consequences for dishonoring God!

Mark this, anyone who dishonors another whom God has created in his image and likeness dishonors God too. And there are consequences for dishonoring God!

In the past, being a slave of God was once a title of honor. Moses, Joshua, David etc. were known as slaves of God. Men and women of God in the past were proud to be called slaves of God. But Jesus tells us he has something greater to call us, "You are no longer slaves but friends." With this, Jesus offers us the greatest intimacy with God. It means we no longer have to look at God from a distance. We are not like slaves who have no right to enter into the presence of their master. We are not spectators or a crowd of people who only look at men and women of authority from a distance. Jesus, our Lord and Brother has given us the permission to enter freely into the presence of the King of kings without any harassment. "In him we live and move and have our being" (Acts 17: 28). We are no longer strangers or aliens but intimate friends of God.

George Morris, Grand Knight Council #6772

As we have gracefully entered 2022 New Year, we need to take time to reflect on what our organization, our church, and our families have experienced the last couple of years. There is no need to give you a blueprint of what we have experienced because each of us have lived it, and millions have died from the Corona virus. To all those who have died as the result of this deadly virus, our Council expresses our deepest sympathy to their respective families.

Irrespective of all the challenges we are faced with as a Council, we continue building a bridge back to faith through investing our time, efforts and resources into our values of Charity, Unity, Fraternity and Patriotism by helping the sick and disabled, feeding the hungry, protecting those that can't protect themselves and providing many more humanitarian services to our church and community.

To our new members, our Council congratulates you for joining our Noble Order and urge each of you to fully participate in all the Council's events; thereby, making you a better husband, father, son, neighbor and a better Catholic.

Fraternally,

George T. Morris

Grand Knight Council #6772 / Knights of Columbus International

LTC Is an Important Piece of the Puzzle

There are many financial consultants and retirement authorities who emphasize the need for a long-term care (LTC) product for estate preservation and family protection. While many commercial life insurance companies have gotten out of the long-term care business, the Knights of Columbus considers LTC a very important piece of the family protection puzzle. The Order has been actively offering our members this product for nearly 15 years without a premium increase on current policyholders. Members who wisely purchased an LTC plan from the Knights in 2000 are still paying the same premiums today. Even better, our LTC coverage is backed by the full strength of the Order, which remains rooted in our strong Catholic values. Talk about stability when it counts.

If we have not spoken about your need for LTC coverage in your family portfolio, please take some time out of your schedule to meet with me.

Remember, long-term care policies are underwritten based on your health, and you most likely will never be any healthier than you are today.
